

We're pleased to announce

Rachel E. Rubinstein

has joined the firm as senior associate attorney. Rachel is an experienced family law attorney who brings a wealth of knowledge and a unique blend of advocacy and empathy to our practice. Rachel serves families in every aspect of dispute resolution, from negotiated and mediated settlements, to litigated resolution. Rachel is qualified in Washington DC as a guardian ad litem for children and she is passionate about serving the community through pro bono assistance. Rachel's compassionate approach to the particular needs of each client align perfectly with our firm's values and we are delighted to welcome her.

Christine Carroll

returns to the firm as an associate attorney. Christine explored the field of family law as a law student, including as a summer associate at the firm, and returns as a dedicated advocate for our clients as they navigate family matters. Christine will play a key role in furthering our mission of providing exceptional legal services with sensitivity and compassion to those facing family law challenges and we are thrilled that she has joined us.

Rami Zubieta

joins the firm as a legal assistant. Rami brings a deep commitment to client well-being, as well as warmth and a generous spirit. Rami is the face and voice of the firm as he will likely greet you at the door and answer your call or email.

Virginia

We are also excited to announce that the Firm now practices family law throughout Northern Virginia.
